General

- I understand and agree that, as part of my registration process, I will receive two further EWA documents: (the "Student Information & Policies Handbook", (which is a document that essentially details the relevant policies which are already shown on the website, but in more detail); and a second document: the "Course Introduction & Syllabus", immediately after EWA has received the total course payment; and that these documents are to be read in conjunction with this Registration form, and so jointly constitute the agreement between myself and EWA.
- The above course fee only covers those costs as specifically set out in the Course description.
- Module exam fees are compulsory. It is more practical and cost saving if such exam fees (€35 per module) are paid at the commencement of the courses, together with the course fee, as this saves bank costs (banks often charge minimum bank costs no matter the size of the payment).
- I understand that English is the language used in all courses.

- I consent to the jurisdiction of the Belgian courts in the event of any legal dispute between us.

This registration is not valid unless signed by the student (and, in the event of someone else paying for the student, that person's signature) and payment of the amounts above have been received in full by the EWA. The date of the student's signature shall be the date of registration for all purposes hereunder.

Payments

- Preferably by standard SWIFT bank transfer: As we strive to keep our course fees reasonable and affordable we normally do not accept credit card payments or similar payments, as these always leads to course fee increases. Therefore, all payments have to be done through your bank. You should therefore instruct your bank to pay the full sum into our bank account (see details below). However, you should use our bank's international codes (see below) as this is not only more time efficient but could save you some bank costs.
- Because of problems some students have experienced with money transfer services (like PayPal etc.), and because in the end it is cheaper for the student, and for us, we do not, at this stage, accept such payment methods.
- Remember to include the module exam fees (@ €35 per module exam), and if you want the double DVD (€20) and/or the Sommelier (€15), also add the respective shipping costs (if it is more because of where you live EWA will inform you). Ordering both will reduce costs.
- All bank costs have to be paid by the student, so that EWA receives the full payment, without the deduction of bank, transfer costs or credit card costs. Make sure your payment contains a reference to your name and course and it is paid into the bank account below (all bank costs to be covered by yourself, so when arranging payment through your bank make sure that you first enquire what the total bank costs will be, and add that on to the course fee and registrations costs). If you decide to use a credit card please note that we add on the usual 3% surcharge, so, remember to add this onto your Total amount (but you will then save the bank costs which a bank transfer causes). In the 'Course Payment' section you will find some courses for which you can use your credit card, and the total sum shown includes all of the costs, including 3% credit card charges.
